

Notice for representatives, officers and employees of vendor companies under art. 13 GDPR

The Vendor hereby acknowledges that the provisions of the legislation on privacy - Regulation (EC) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and Council of 27 April 2016 on protection of individuals within the scope of personal data processing, hereafter "GDPR" - concern the processing of personal data, which are related thus to individuals only, which are collected and processed by the Customer for executing and performing the Contract and shall not be applied to any data concerning companies, entities and associations. For the purposes hereof, the Vendor may carry out the processing of the personal data regarding (i) the Vendor, in case of a sole trader or a self employed professional and/or, in any case (ii) the representatives, officers, employees or collaborators of the Vendor.

The Vendor hereby represents to be aware, pursuant to art. 13 of GDPR, that the personal data disclosed by him for the purposes connected to the execution and performance of the Contract are collected and processed by the Customer, which acts as Data Controller, only for said purposes and for meeting the connected statutory, administrative and accounting obligations, by means of appropriate procedures (including any IT procedures), through the internal staff specifically appointed thereto and by employing external collaborators who will be appointed as data processors or officers in charge of the processing. The Vendor acknowledges that, as regards to the personal data processed for the execution and performance of this Contract, the individual who is concerned by the data ("the Data Subject") has the right to be granted with the access, amendment, limitation, deletion, portability and to oppose the processing (articles 15-22 GDPR), and also the right to lodge a complaint with the Garante Privacy.

The Vendor is obliged to guarantee the lawful use of the personal data concerning, by way of non limiting example, any representative, officer, employees and collaborators thereof, which may be disclosed to the Customer for the purposes of the execution and performance of the Contract and, namely, the correct performance of the reporting obligations to the data subjects in addition to, if required, the obligation to obtain their consent as regards the processing of their personal data by the Supplier for the above purposes and in the terms stated above.
